

World Elder Abuse AWARENESS DAY

WEAAD MANITOBA

JUNE 15

Inspiration for Intergenerational Programming Connecting the Generations

KEY CONCEPTS	ACTIVITIES	RESOURCES
K-3 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • talk about older adults they know, what they do, what they look like, their role in their families • discuss the meaning of respect, what does it look like, and sound like 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • invite an older adult to read an intergenerational focused book • participate in art activities with older adults • plan a WEAAD walk • make purple ribbons • have a picnic 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Across the Generations tool kit • WEAAD activity sheet
4-6 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • discuss myths and stereotypes of aging • talk about bullying - it occurs at all ages • talk about how we can show respect of older people in our communities 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • participate in or plan your own WEAAD event • be a pen pal with an older adult • develop an ongoing intergenerational program • arrange a visit to a seniors housing facility or personal care home 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Across the Generations tool kit • 'Seniors are Cool' video
7-12 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • discuss myths and stereotypes of aging • develop a sense of personal and social responsibility; elder abuse prevention; • understand the rights both of youth and of older adults and how they align 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • plan a community WEAAD activity project - see examples in the Teen Kit • create a media project 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Elder Abuse Awareness Teen Kit • 'Seniors are Cool' video